

S. Petersburg, 26/10 907

Dear Mrs. Parlow;

Do not mind to write;

I always have much pleasure to read your letters with all the details concerning Kathleen's success.

Tell me please, something about the Press notices what they say of the Brahms concert. —

It would be very desirable if, by the aid of the Ambassador, you could have the addresses of the english correspondents at Berlin and ask them to send some notices about the Orchestral Concert of the 1 November. - I should ~~like~~<sup>to</sup> have some details concerning the financial result of the four concerts and the expenses at Berlin.

Having been away last week for a few days at Lodz (Poland) I am going just the 1st November (new calendar) to Rikinsht and Tarosloff for 3 days. The 22 November begins a tournee #9 for about 3-4 Weeks at the North of Russia (the way to Siberia) over I never have been. - So I am not able to advise the american girl to come directly (at once) here. - At the Conservatory is no any possibility to place nobody; my class is more than crowded.

You would much oblige me to write to Miss Tyne.

(I do not know her address) that she must not come here intending to get a place at my class. —

I am sorry, but it is impossible.

If she likes to come here, I could only give her private lessons with the opportunity to assist at my class as a visitor; but I suppose she had so many lessons before that she may practice without any teacher. — I think from the end of January I shall stoppe here without leaving, till

II
the middle of Decr, when I intended to visit London. —

Write me please what programme Korbelen will play at Dresden and other towns with orchestra; with Pianos, at all the first concerts she has to play "Trio du Violon and Flautovocal. — Is she ready for the "Chaconne" Bach, Caprice — a small Paganini?

And now give my love to Kathleen; tell me please what Nisch told you.

Best wishes!

Sincerely Yours

L. Rues
